MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parish family of Our Lady of Hope, commit ourselves to continue the mission of Jesus Christ, to proclaim His Gospel, and to love one another as He loves us. We are a welcoming community of faith, guided by the Holy Spirit and centered on God's Word and the Eucharist. Through the Sacraments, prayer, and the stewardship of our God-given gifts, we provide opportunities to grow closer to God and to serve members of the community.

GOD HAS REVEALED A GREAT LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

As we celebrate Epiphany, our readings today remind us of the power of God’s revelation. Throughout history, God has promised salvation. Today we celebrate some of the first witnesses of this great event, the Magi. May we deepen our faith as we, too, journey to be closer to Christ.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Isaiah calls Jerusalem to rise up in splendor, for their light has come...Nations shall walk by [it] and all shall gather and [proclaim] the praises of the Lord. Paul writes to the Ephesians that it has now been revealed...by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ. In the Gospel, the Magi arrive in Jerusalem seeking the newborn king of the Jews. They follow a star to where He lay, bringing Him gifts and paying Him homage.

2024 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL
 REVISED BY MICHELLE STERN

Revitalizing our Faith - Renewed by the Eucharist

"Bearers of gratitude make the world a better place."
 - Pope Francis

As we all begin to prepare for Thanksgiving and we express our gratitude for God's blessings upon us, let us remember those who are struggling to put food on their families' table each day, let alone a special holiday meal.

Our local PSM work diligently to ensure that families who are in need can bring their families together to be nourished every day and on a special day like Thanksgiving, by offering baskets of food and turkey. PSM are also a source of comfort and spiritual strength.

Parish Social Ministry Outreach encompasses a variety of ways in reaching out to those in need, the marginalized and so many others through different programs and services available throughout the year. In addition, this ministry provides information and guidance on issues of social justice guided by Catholic Teachings.

The Director of the Parish Outreach, Katie Spellman, shared how her work allows her to grow in her faith.
"Working in Parish Social Ministry has taken my faith outside of the Church. It's an opportunity for me to dig deeper into faith and think of the humble servant. It's a gift for me to work here - it feeds my soul."

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED...

Advent Mass

We gathered for Mass at school before the Season of Advent came to a close. Children in 4th grade proclaimed the readings and Universal Prayer. The School Chorus led us through music from Advent to Christmas. Seminarian Nick offered words of reflection - wake someone up with the good news of Christmas!

December 2024

A Message from the Pastor

Recently, I am sure you have heard in the news that the Diocese of Rockville Centre has come to an agreement to settle the Chapter 11 bankruptcy reorganization it filed in October of 2020. The bankruptcy was the result of the large number of lawsuits filed against the Diocese, parishes and other affiliated Church entities after the passage of the Child Victims Act (CVA) in New York State. This settlement is good news both for the Diocese and every parish. As your pastor, I would like to explain what this means for the Diocese and, more specifically, for us here at Our Lady of Hope.

As we know, early in the year 2002, news stories broke in Massachusetts concerning incidents of child sexual abuse in the Archdiocese of Boston that had taken place over many years. Then, stories of similar scandals in other Dioceses throughout the country began to be reported. It was a terrible shock to Catholics in the United States that something like this could have happened in our beloved Church. It was also terrible to think that priests and others working in and for the Church had committed such terrible sins and crimes against innocent and vulnerable children. The Church, and those who work in her, must always be held to a higher standard than other institutions in society because we were founded by Jesus Christ, and we serve Him through serving His people.

When these many stories of abuse came to light over the following number of years, the Catholic Church in America instituted a series of reforms to try to ensure that sins like that will not happen again. In addition, the Church of the present tried to help those who suffered in the Church of the past. Besides offering psychological counseling and medical assistance, many Dioceses across the country sought to help survivors with monetary compensation.

In February of 2019, the Child Victims Act was signed into law in New York State and took effect that August. The CVA opened a one-year (later expanded to two years) "window", or suspension of the statute of limitations, for bringing legal claims resulting from sexual abuse, regardless of where or when the abuse occurred. In the case of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, this produced a flood of lawsuits concerning incidents going back to 1957, the year we were founded. The Diocese simply did not have the money to litigate, let alone settle, all these cases. Consequently, in October of 2020, the Diocese of Rockville Centre filed a voluntary petition for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the US Bankruptcy Code.

Bankruptcy is not a way to protect or hide assets. The Federal Bankruptcy process demands absolute financial transparency from the debtor (the Diocese), so that all her assets are placed "on the table" for all to see. Bankruptcy, in cases like this, is a way to get all survivors as much compensation as possible while still allowing the Church to exist and continue her mission to serve God's people.

The overall settlement of our Diocesan bankruptcy is $323 million. This amount has been raised mainly from the Diocese itself, including the sale of Diocesan properties, as well as, investment income and insurance funds. Once the Diocese emerges from bankruptcy, not only will it have compensated survivors and settled all outstanding lawsuits, but it will also have immunity from all future historic lawsuits regarding sexual abuse. This means that never again can there be lawsuits against the Diocese regarding alleged sexual abuse that occurred in the remote past. However, it is important that the 134 parishes of the Diocese also receive that protection of immunity from future historic lawsuits. For a parish to obtain this immunity requires a contribution to the settlement fund from each parish, as well as the parish going through bankruptcy itself.

As of this writing, thirty-eight Catholic Diocese across the country have filed for Chapter 11 Bankruptcy reorganization since 2004. The Diocese of Rockville Centre was the twenty-sixth to file. However, when the lawsuits began in New York following the passage of the CVA, the law firms representing the plaintiffs did something they had not done before. They required a much larger contribution from the parishes that they had in previous cases. The global settlement of the bankruptcy was contingent upon this demand. Consequently, the Diocese approached the parishes asking for a specific contribution from each. This individual parish figure was arrived at based on a number of factors: the number of lawsuits the parish had outstanding against it; the amount of liquid assets the parish had; the parish's current financial health; and other factors. It is also true that there are many parishes in the Diocese which simply do not have sufficient liquid assets from which to contribute. Therefore, some parishes had to pay more in order that all parishes could receive the protection. There was no possibility of settling with some parishes and not others. For any parishes to receive the protection, all had to be involved, and come up with an aggregate amount the plaintiffs' law firms would agree to. This is one of the reasons that our Diocesan bankruptcy took so long to settle.

As you have seen reported in the media, the parishes' contributions to the settlement fund have ranged from $82,000 to $4.5 million. Our Lady of Hope's contribution was $111,000. I know this is a very large amount. However, the money came from the result of investment income the parish had accrued because of wise fiscal management over the years. No funds from the recent Capital Campaign Fund were used; one-hundred percent of that money went to the recent building projects.

As high as this figure is for Our Lady of Hope, we must remember that it is far less than the money it would cost to litigate cases. Our Lady of Hope's contribution has purchased for us something far more valuable: immunity from all future historic lawsuits. The reason this is so important can be seen from the example of the State of California, where three separate Child Victim's Acts have been passed over the last two decades, resulting in new lawsuits against the Church each time. However, we do not have to look to California to see the vital necessity of gaining this immunity. In September of this year, Spectrum News 1 reported that legislators in Albany want to open another lookback window under the Child Victims Act to allow for more claims from the past to be brought in the future. (Spectrum News 1: "New York Lawmakers Vow to Revisit Child Victims Act Despite Insurer Noncompliance", 9/24/24, by Kate Lisa.) So, every parish must secure immunity from future historic lawsuits to protect us from having to go through this again.

It should be also be remembered that of the $323 million global settlement figure, the Diocese itself has provided the great bulk of the funds, followed by the insurance companies, followed by the parishes and other Diocesan entities.

I am very grateful to the Trustees and members of the parish Finance Committee of Our Lady of Hope for the dedicated and devoted work they have done for our parish over the years, and for their advice, counsel, and support in these unusual and difficult times.

The two and a half years that I have been blessed to be pastor of Our Lady of Hope have been eventful ones, to say the least! Over the last 2 years Our Lord and Our Lady have been doing extraordinary things here at Our Lady of Hope. Mass attendance is increasing and collections have remained steady. Together we at Our Lady of Hope move forward in joyful confidence, knowing that God is always on our side!

OUR CHRISTMAS TREES

Thank you to all who responded to our Christmas Tree Program. Thank you to all who worked hard to make this happen: Christine & Rob Emanuelli, Maria & Manuel Vargas, Don Schaefer, Michael Coulter, Andrea Mengler, Robert LaMantia & all the sponsors and decorators! We have gotten many compliments from the community about how beautiful they are and what a great addition to Carle Place.

We are now asking for all sponsors who decorated their trees to come next week and remove the decorations and for all tree sponsors to come and take the plaque off their tree as we get ready to dismantle the exhibit. If you are able to help dismantle please give the office a call. No date has been set but hopefully it will be set by next week. We would love to have extra hands!

We Give Thanks!

The Food Pantry Staff is especially appreciative to several groups and individuals who have contributed to make this a bountiful holiday season.

- ◆ Phil Bogdos of the Majestic Diner for his donation of turkeys and the trimmings for the last 10 years.
- ◆ Students of the Carle Place High School Key and the Carle Place Middle School Builders Clubs and their advisors, Maddalena Buffalino and Kimberly Sammon. Students also helped to sort and shelve the donations.
- ◆ The Our Lady of Hope Religious Education students, teachers, and families for their food drive, coordinated by Maria Vargas.
- ◆ The American Legion CP Post 1718 for their consistent monetary donations throughout the year.
- ◆ John Messina and other anonymous benefactors for the monetary generosity.
- ◆ Our Lady of Hope parishioners who donate food and funds throughout the year.
- ◆ Carle Place Fire Department for their generous donation of gift cards.
- ◆ The Westbury/Carle Place Chamber of Commerce for their donation of food.

We are totally dependent upon your support and could not service our families without you. With heartfelt thanks, we wish you a Blessed Christmas & a Happy New Year!
